

Daily Flash Show Synopsis - Week Of 7/29/24

Monday, 7/29/24

Deb Burger of Modern Era Reality talks about what's next for the housing market and economy, plus, Florida state the most alligators in the world, and meet a man who has decided to eat daily bull testicles to build his testosterone.

Tuesday, 7/30/24

Erin Snodgrass from the Business Insider explains how people are finding their tribes, also, see how a man uses a frying pan to fight off a home burglar, plus, Ferrari plans on releasing an electronic car, and the price tag is definitely luxurious.

Wednesday, 7/31/24

Nutritionist and Health Specialist Sarah Baker explains how gut bacteria may improve brain health, also, the state of Florida has been ranked the worst state for singles, and a new gym in NY is charging a monthly membership of $10K.

Thursday, 8/1/24

New York-based comedian and musician Dave Hill talks about his career, tour and new book, plus, tech expert Dr. Frank has the insight on the latest in tech, and Florida has been named as the shark capital of the world.

Friday, 8/2/24

Girl Band SOS talk about their new album and forming the group, also, the reason why there's an age requirement to dine at one restaurant, and, airlines consider discontinuing alcohol beverages on flights.